

PUBLIC PARTICIPATION IN THE RULEMAKING PROCESS

The public is encouraged to participate in the rulemaking process by which the Department's administrative rules are made, amended, or repealed. Listed are some of the ways in which to participate:

By inspecting a copy of the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking filed with the Secretary of State for publication in the Arizona Administrative Register. See A.R.S. § 41-1022.

By submitting written or oral comments to the Department. In order for the Department to consider your comments, the Department must receive them before the rulemaking is adopted. Your comments must reach the Department within the 30-day comment period following the publication of the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking in the Arizona Administrative Register. Send comments to the Department representative whose name and address is provided in the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking. See A.R.S. § 41-1022.

By submitting to the Governor's Regulatory Review Council written comments that are relevant to the Council's power to review a given rule. The Council reviews the rule at the end of the rulemaking process and before the rules are filed with the Secretary of State. See A.R.S. § 41-1052.
